

Some People Who Have Figured Recently in the Public Prints

CLAU A. SPRECKELS, of the well-known sugar family, son of the late Claus Spreckels.

Recent snapshot of John Jacob Astor and his son, Vincent.

CHARLES E. HUGHES Has overruled the whiskers of which the cartoonists made so much fun before he mounted the Supreme Court bench. He has trimmed the whiskers until they appear as they do in the photograph.

HENRY BACON, Architect, of New York, selected to design the $2,000,000 Lincoln Memorial.

MISS CAROLYN BRYCE (left) AND MRS. HENRY MARTYN ALEXANDER (right). Two prominent society horsewomen.

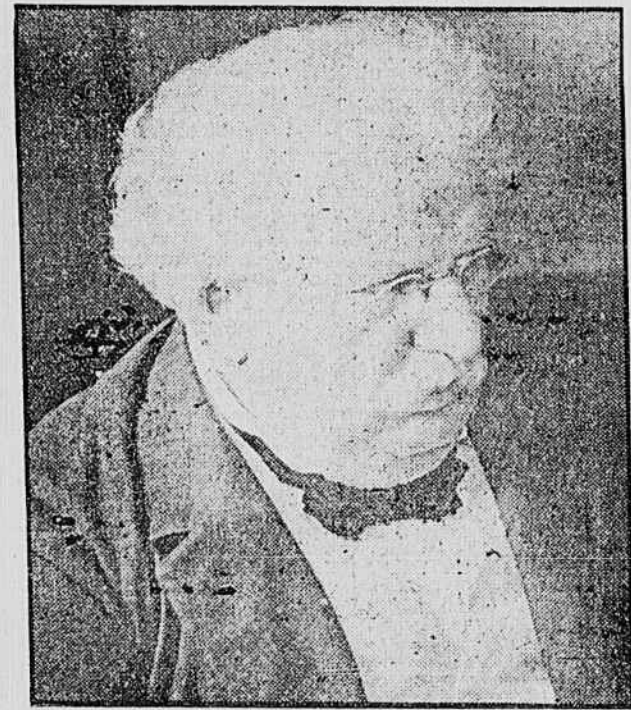

REPRESENTATIVE CYRUS SULLOWAY, of New Hampshire, the tallest man in either house of Congress.

COUNTESS DE LOCHES, LEADER IN SOCIETY.

On the left is John Kenlon, the new fire chief of New York.

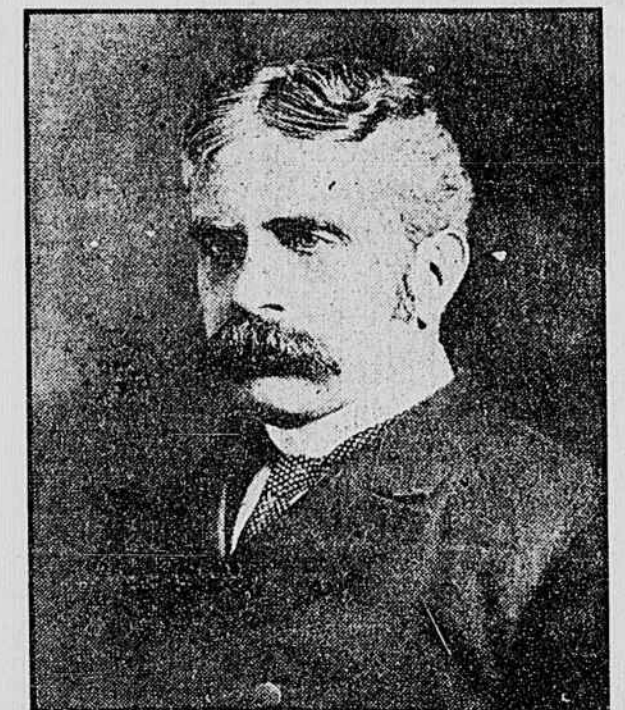

THEODORE N. VAIL, President of the American Telegraph and Telephone Company.

MRS. PERCY A. ROCKEFELLER, Wife of the son of William Rockefeller.

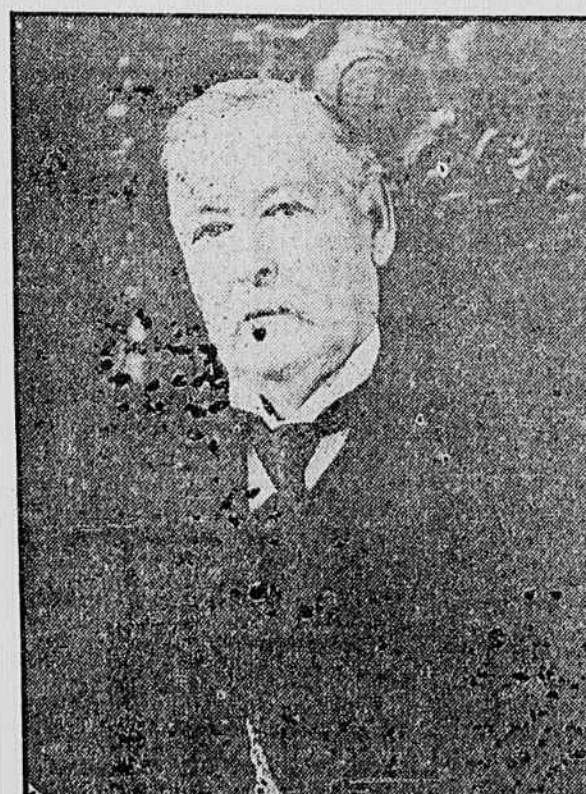

EMMA EAMES, the well-known singer, now Mrs. Emilio De Gogorza.

ROBERT L. BORDEN, One of the leading statesmen of Canada.

Widow of the assassinated King Charles and mother of the deposed King Manuel, who is standing next to her. On the right is King Alfonso of Spain.

FORMER REPRESENTATIVE WILLIAM P. HEPBURN, of Iowa, is counsel for Dr. Harvey W. Wiley in the food expert's fight.

QUEEN VICTORIA OF SPAIN AND HER THREE CHILDREN

GENERAL DANIEL E. SICKLES, Who is being sued by his daughter for an accounting of trust funds. (Copyright, 1911, by American Press Association.)